

Mark Geary MA, APR

Senior Director, Communications

Mark Geary is senior director of communication for Beaumont Health

In this role, he leads internal communications, executive communications, physician communications, external communications, media relations, crisis communications and physician liaison for the health system.

Previously, he served as media relations coordinator, media relations manager and as director of external communication and media relations.

In 2020, Mark was selected for the Oakland County Executive's Elite 40. He has completed FEMA disaster training at the Center for Domestic Preparedness in Alabama. He is also a graduate of the Leadership Oakland program.

Prior to joining Beaumont, Mark spent a decade working as a news reporter in Missouri, Michigan, Iowa and North Carolina. Throughout his career, Mark has received numerous honors including two Emmys Awards and a Society of Professional Journalists National Sigma Delta Chi Award.

Mark earned his Master's degree in Journalism from the University of Missouri-Columbia. In 2020, he earned his Accreditation in Public Relations (APR).

Beaumont Health is a division of BSHS System. Our mission is to improve health, instill humanity and inspire hope. With eight hospitals, more than 150 outpatient locations, nearly 5,000 physicians and 33,000 employees, our care contributes to the health and well-being of residents throughout the communities we serve and beyond.